

2021 Torrey Chamber Music Festival Youth Strings Camp Registration and Waiver of Liability Form

WHO ARE WE

The Entrada Institute was established in 1993 as a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation that supports artists, writers, humanities scholars, earth and social scientists in their development of new works, and promotes understanding and appreciation of the natural, cultural, and historical heritage of the Capitol Reef area. Entrada's programs and youth scholarships are supported by personal and corporate donations, grants, and modest admission fees to some events.

WHAT WE DO

Entrada is a Spanish word that means "opening" or "gateway." It is also the name of a spectacular geologic formation on the Colorado Plateau. Fittingly, the Entrada Institute, headquartered in Torrey, Utah has opened the door for people of all ages and diverse to come together through its eclectic events; programs, which are designed to entertain, inform, and interpret the area through art, humanities and science. The Entrada Institute brings both emerging and highly experienced visual artists, authors, composers, earth scientists, astronomers, filmmakers, historians, photographers and many others together to help combine people, places, and experiences together in the visually stunning surroundings of Capitol Reef National Park in Southern Utah.

TORREY CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Torrey Chamber Music Festival "Strings Camp" is a program presented by the Entrada Institute, Inc., the program taught at the Wayne County Community Center seeks to bring musician's to coach students in technique, musicianship and ensemble playing. The coaching culminates in a dress rehearsal and final performance at Robber's Roost.
